President's Column

The nice weather is starting to show itself, time to get airborne. Just remember, you may be a little rusty after the winter hiatus, so take it easy and work on restoring your G- tolerance before attacking the new sequences.

We have attracted the attention of a couple of instructors (& maybe some students) from Northwestern Community College in Grand Rapids. Welcome fellas, come join the fun.

For those interested in the Ohio (IAC 34) April 10 & 11 Judge's school, their info is at <http://www.iac34.com/JudgesSchool.htm>

Secretary Minutes were printed in the March Newsletter

Treasurer Robb reported that we are solvent.

Calendar: Following are the changes to the Calendar:

- April 17: Critique Day at Marine City

- May 16: Chapter Meeting, 1:00 p.m. at Howell Airport Terminal

Check website for dates.

Old Business:

Jackson Competition: We need to know if Donna is able to do Registration.

Box Markers: Still need to purchase the nails.

Chapter Business:

Virginia will take the plaque to Marge.

Members list w/email is ready to go to the Board.

New Business:

Competition needs a Chief Judge. Greg Dungan will be asked. Also, it was discussed that we ask another to have Co-Chief Judges, so one person does not have to do every event for both days. One of our members probably will be able to help.

Critique Day: Possibly we need to start flying an hour or so earlier so all pilots have plenty of time to fly.

Robb discussed making some kind of lean-to tent to give judges protection from sun and heat.

Robb made motion to adjourn at 2:30 p.m., Virginia seconded, motion passed.

Respectfully submitted

Mary Gowans

Secretary
